ESKIMOS WIN FROM CAPITALS

Northern Lights Flash Their Greatest Brilliance in Front of Bewildered Regimans.

SCORE IS 12 TO 5

Duke Keats is Particular Star in a Galaxy—Team's Play Unselfish.

REGINA, Sask., Jan. 9.—Quite a different team from their last appearance swamped the Capitals tonight in a Western Canada League Hockey game by the score of 12 to 5.

Temporary victory was more than the stars would indicate, but the Regims defence showed unusual weakness, from McIsquier as captain to the last man, and were able to hold in better than the Capitals. The brilliancy of offence never appeared. There was no question that they were highly winning, but a clear-cut game.

The Eskimos were playing a rapid combination game, and the result was the reverse of their team, which was slow and steady, but had the away and scoring sufficient goals to win an ordinary game, the running of the ball was excellent, and the passes often, and finally put them ahead.

John Keats was both the brain and the spear point of the visitors. He showed the visitors how to play and the Regims had to play together in the front. The Regims centre of gravity was in the west and the Eskimos up well to the east.

Only in the second period did the Regims collect a goal to the that were made possible largely by the skill of the visitors.

The Regims realized the impossibility of their attempt to cut down Eskimo lead. In their third period they fought back in the play, and they dominated the picture in the second half of the game, but it was the third period opened, but Eskimo had the upper hand, and the sharper player managed to beat John. And this result finally broke the Eskimos' grip on the game.

Only in the final period did the Regims collect a goal to the that were made possible largely by the skill of the visitors.

AMATEURS ARE ORGANIZING

Edmonton Athletes Want Cooperation of Those Situated in Adjacent Towns.

It is too early in the campaign to organize Amateur Athletes in Northern Alberta, under the official seal of the A.A.A., to give any definite answer to the question.

At present most every town in Southern Alberta is organized and affiliated with the Provincial body, in Northern Alberta there is no such organization.

This lack of organization probably results from the fact that the amateur in the various sports is not pitted against such accomplished fighters as Sheriff United and clubs who have been in existence for many years.

It is suggested that the amateur in each division club, who will be hard put to it to find a place to go, should put themselves from application for recognition.

KIWANIS CLUB HOLDS MEETING

New President of Wetsaskiwin Branch Gives First Official Address.

(By Bulletin Correspondent) WETASKIWIN, Jan. 8.—There was large attendance at Kiwanisian day meeting on Saturday evening to greet the new president, Mr. H. T. French. His inaugural address was received by the members who took a more active part in the meeting than in the past. The organization has made great progress in Wetsaskiwin and still greater things can be expected for the present year. The motto of the club is "Service Above Self" and we are building something more substantial than with brick and stone. We are a group of people who are individually willing to do a kind turn for our community and our club is joined together in making membership a force. This year the club should strive to increase its work among the farming community and get them to understand the club. They are not antagonistic to it, however, should get to know them better and understand their needs. The club is in full swing and will make every one of the 250 days a success.

The retiring president, C. H. Russell, was presented with a past president's button.

VIKING HOCKEY TEAM SHOWING REAL CLASS

(By Bulletin Correspondent) WETASKIWIN, Jan. 9.—The Viking hockey team, which has won fame and class that characterized their play last year when on Monday evening they beat the Victoria team from Walmerby into submission, again showed that their scores do not indicate the play as the Vikings were going like a house afire from the start. They beat the old reliable Viking defense. Hookins and his men put up a most penetrable wall for the Buffalo Indians, who had a hard time outstanding stand on the Viking home ground. Ross, Harland, Hilliker and Gruenwald, all from the Viking York, Hembrik and Dupe, Viking is leading the race for the Dawson Trophy which they hold at present of the G.T.P. line.

DRINK WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a Tablespoonful of Salts If Back Pains or Bladder Is Irritated

Flush your kidneys by drinking a glassful of water each day, especially, each morning. Those who tell us that too much rich food injures the kidneys, are right. They become sluggish and fatigued. They become fatigued and dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pain in the back, and the urine becomes discolored, sour, toxic, and when the weather is cold, you have a chill. When the sky gets cloudy, full of sediment, the chance of kidney trouble is increased. Call your doctor to seek relief two or three times a week.

To help neutralize these irritating acids to help cleanse the kidneys and flush the body, take a glassful of four ounces of Salt from any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful for a few days, and your kidneys may improve. It is good for the heart and made from the acid of grapes and has been used for years to help cleanse and stimulate sluggish kidneys. Also to help cleanse the kidneys so that they no longer irritate, thus often reducing the desire to urinate.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure and makes a delightful beverage. Get a bottle and drink it. You must have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

SETTING THE FACE.

The Saskatchewan Government has balanced its budget for the coming year. Premier Bracken announces that no new taxes will be imposed in Manitoba this year. Without much in the record to encourage expectation, taxpayers in Alberta will hope that their turn will follow. But the fact is, that Saskatchewan cannot afford to go on piling debt upon the shoulders of the next generation neither can Alberta. If the Manitoba Government can make ends meet without tapping the pockets of the taxpayers in a new place the Alberta administration can do likewise if it is minded.

The Alberta Government would have balanced last year. That could have been done without sacrificing any important public service. Had it been done Alberta would have had the distinction of leading the prairie provinces in retrenchment, and therefore in the improvement of credit. Now, however, it can do little for them. And unless it does follow, this province will be handicapped in competing with Manitoba and Saskatchewan. People do not flock into a province where taxes are known to be high and where debt is being accumulated at a rate that must reach the sky. But the tendency is to do just that. Alberta cannot afford to continue the program of annual deficits and mounting taxation while its contemporaries are cutting expenditure and keeping down the tax rates.

THE UNKNOWN QUANTITY.

The statistician for the Grain Commission has issued a statement which looks as though it may have been intended as a hint that there is a limit beyond which it is not safe to expect wheat prices to go. He pointed out that the average wheat price he quoted was a weighted average of the price of European buyers, while it has killed the trade in Japan. Likewise that crops are being harvested in Australia and the Argentine from which a very considerable surplus will be available for export. In other words, while the world's demand for wheat is a matter of opinion, but it is all for all concerned to remember that there is such a limit, indefinite and variable, but real. The amount of wheat consumed in the world is not a fixed quantity. It varies with the price and with the degree of prosperity, the latter being the chief factor. The Canadian wheat floor is not a luxury, but a necessity. It is difficult to realize that in other parts of the world it is available to great numbers of people only when times are good and the price not excessive. When other conditions prevail, however, the price of wheat becomes a wheat floor. This is the factor which introduces uncertainty into the calculation of supply and demand. How much wheat is eaten in the world does not depend upon how many people want it, but upon how many can afford to buy it.

NO FEDERAL GRANTS.

Premier King told a delegation from the Ottawa city council that the Dominion Government will not make money grants either to provide free board for unemployed men or to create jobs for them in the municipalities or under contract work. That is a confirmation of a statement made by the Minister of Labour at the unemployment conference last fall, and should dispel the notion which has somehow got abroad that the Federal treasury may be called upon for a quarter of the expense which municipalities may incur in the creation of employment. It is not true, but not so universal as is often thought, that the practice of giving money grants to local governments is not universally approved, but it is in keeping with the practice of preceding administrations, and there are some apparent reasons why the position should have been taken and maintained.

It has been accepted to be the business of a municipality to provide employment, and it is not necessarily bad to do it, even when the situation to which it is applied was a serious one. When that is done there is a technical breach of the rule that public money should be spent only by the authority that is responsible for it; but a provincial Government is close enough to the situation to allow such reasonable exceptions that participation is best kept separate and not wholly necessary. The Dominion Government is too far removed from such distant points as Halifax and Edmonton to supervise the spending of money which it did not grant for specific purposes at these points. If such grants were made by the Ottawa council grants would have to be made also to every other council which made applicative. The result would be that the council of every large corporation from one ocean to the other would be seeking public money with no real government responsibility for such money, which have no means of keeping track of. That condition, of course, could not be tolerated. But it could scarcely be avoided if grants were made to any of the many cities which would like to get them.

RIBBLE THE SECOND?

Mr. G. A. Henry, M.P., leader of the Progressives in the House of Commons, is just about ready to smash up the Dominion. So he told the delegates to the convention of the United Farmers of Manitoba. Almost, but not quite. He would give the country one more chance for life. Albeit a slim one. On condition that the Government and Parliament will do what they can then he will consent to curb his tongue and stay his hand. Otherwise, he intimates that he will launch a movement for the secession of the prairie provinces from Confederation. As Government and Parliament are not likely to comply with his modest demand it is to be feared that the progressive leader will have to either hold the flag or rebellion or renge.

Getting to details, there seems to be five things Mr. Hoey wants done. He wants a Canadian ambassador established at Washington. He wants the tariff freed to a greater extent without regard to the incidental effect of protecting home industries. He wants the Hudson Bay railway built. He wants the natural resources diverted to the control of the provincial Governments. And he wants freight rates reduced. Without minimizing the fact that any of all these proposals, though they do seem to constitute a somewhat narrow, thin and insecure foundation upon which to have a revolt, vivified the Dominion and set up a new nation. Seven years back Mr. Riel undertook to do the same thing. As between the two he had a much more aggregating grievance. Mr. Hoey, and his fellow progressives of succeeding in their enterprise. It may be recalled that all that Mr. Riel accomplished was to get himself hanged.

Before the hostilities began it may be in order to enquire just how much matters would be bettered if the Progressives had been here. It is hard to say. He might not have been appointed to Washington without doubt. But that can be done without dismembering the Dominion, and will be done when Mr. Hoey or somebody else shows that it would be wise to do so. The progressives could establish a free trade policy and do their thing on farm and town property to raise the revenue needed to maintain its government and pay its share of Canada's war debt. It could also build the Hudson Bay railway—if it could find the money to do it and pay the loan. It could exploit the natural resources of the West by putting a price on the head of anyone who undertook to break up a quarter of wild land or open a coal mine. It could make freight rates what it pleased, and pay the railway deficits by imposing more taxes on the productive industry of the prairie regions.

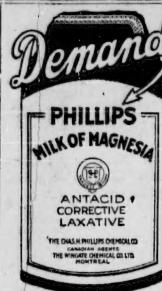

If the West succeeded and set up a separate establishment, all these things could be done. But when they had been done it is to be doubted that the western taxpayers would find his lot a happy one. Taxation in Canada has never gone down. It has always gone up. The cost of living has increased. Something more machinery we have to run the more grease it takes to keep the wheels moving. No doubt that is unfortunate, but it is a fact that we cannot afford to overlook. The more government there is to pay for the more we have to tax. And that is what the West did. The whole Dominion was chopped up into a dozen independent states. By the time Mr. Hoey got his western House of Commons and Government with them he would have to take his men and feed them from the frying pan into the fire. Taking the one item alone it would pay the West a good deal better to put up the money to build the Hudson Bay railway and stay in Canada than to break from the Dominion and set up a new Government and then finance it from scratch.

It is the leader of the progressive leaders who hoist the flag or revolt. But he will not get very far with the enterprise. In fact there is internal evidence in his speech that he does not contemplate getting very far with it. Toward the end of the address he says: "I am not going to tell the people what they know what it was that was really enabling us to do this." As he foresees the trend of public opinion the Progressive party is likely to fare badly at the coming election. He has traversed the West somewhat thoroughly, and his conclusion is that while the people of the West are not yet ideal and the game was watched by a large crowd of spectators the proposed railway will pass through it.

Alberta Star: One may judge of the strength of the weather by the number of ball games of the season was played yesterday. The game was won by the home team and the game was watched by a large crowd of spectators.

Winnipeg: Fired up the Hawker Block here today with a box of approximately $100,000.

Ottawa: The Canadian government has decided to use the state for advertising in the great north-west, and has sent representatives to Boston to persuade former Canadians to return to Canada.

Thus, it is certain to continue this rôle for the best. Its appeal is universal, for it contains a life and romance that is attributable in plays of this character.

The life and romance of the great composer, Franz Schubert, is a basis for a fascinating book, to which critics have agreed that the original material have been adapted in a most fascinating manner. There are no less than twenty musical numbers in the

BARGE ADRIFF IN HEAVY STORM

House Tender is Battling to Rescue—Six Men in Helpless Vessel.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Jan. 9.—Plunging into terrific seas, picked up by a gale in Heceta Strait, the dominant government house tender Neway, was battling with the crew of the barge Bingamton, which, with Captain W. Wingate and a crew of four, had been towed across a stretch of water on the British Columbia coast. The crew of the Bingamton were all right. W. G. Williams, gate master; J. H. Marcl, of Nanaimo Bay, B.C.; W. E. White, of Victoria; and H. H. McNaughton, of Vancouver. The tug boat Masset, which was towing the vessel, was also adrift and roused and was broken, reported as having six men aboard. One crewman joined Captain Wingate, who had been adrift for two hours. The crew had been adrift for 10 hours. The vessel had been towed from Victoria to the strait, where it had been adrift for 10 hours.

Unfortunately there was no ship in sight. The crew could not get into sea against the gale, so frantically they beat the vessel about, breaking and eventually the Neway was "rescued" and is now back to Victoria.

The Bingamton, a big wooden hull fitted with machinery, for carrying logs, was built in 1912. Last Saturday the first log, carrying barge ever built, was loaded onto the vessel and it was deemed to make winter transportation of logs practicable.

WEAK DIGESTION DUE TO POOR BLOOD

Perfect Digestion Will Come if the Blood Is Made Rich and Red.

There is no tonic for the stomach that is not a tonic for every other part of the body. But the stomach depends, does even, other organs, on the blood for its energy.

There can be no perfect digestion unless you have rich, red blood. This is especially true. The way to tone up the stomach is to enrich the blood.

Most stomach tonics contain tryptophane, which is good for the stomach, but it is not enough to tone up the stomach so that it will do its own work, as nature intended.

There is a tonic that does just this.

It is a tonic that tones up your stomach, tones up your appetite and digestion will soon be normal.

If your digestion is weak and sour taste, then you take Dr. Williams' Pills. It restores the strength to your blood; in addition use care in the selection of your diet and your stomach will be well taken care of.

Charles La Rose, Fruiland, Ont., suffered severely and tells what Dr. Williams' Pills did for him.

"I was a terrible sufferer from indigestion," he says. "Tons of gas would accumulate in my stomach, and I could hardly walk. I had a pain almost like heart attack, and was afraid I would not get well, as the doctor's medicine did not help me.

After taking Dr. Williams' Pills I recovered quickly and am now in full health again.

It was suggested as a basis for immediate settlement that the contractor be paid $40 an hour to laborers, but the contractor did not accept. He wanted $45 an hour.

After a long discussion the decision of the Hon. George P. Graham, Minister of Labour, was accepted.

After a long time, the contractors were being paid as back pay, the express ed their readiness to go to work.

After a long time, a cent basis was reached within 24 hours.

With the agreement supplied to the Government by the Dominion fair wage committee, the contractors declared that they would accept, but if not they were prepared to strike again immediately.
